Where: Genesee Town Park, Genesee Depot, WI

Time: Defensive Skills Session : 10:00am-12:00pm
 Offensive Skills Session : 12:30pm-2:30pm

Who: Youth baseball players between the ages of 8-18
 (will split up based on age / ability level)

Cost: $15 per individual session
 $25 for both (includes lunch)

All registered campers will receive a Genesee Rebels T-Shirt!

Lunch consisting of hotdog, chips, and a Gatorade will be provided for those who sign up for both sessions.

Camp Description

Both camps will focus on the fundamentals of offense and defense and leave the campers equipped with tips, drills, and strategies to continue to improve their skills. Campers of ALL ability levels are encouraged to attend and will be grouped with campers of similar age and experience. It is our goal to run an informative and fun baseball camp that gets all youth excited for baseball / softball season! Campers should wear athletic pants, t-shirt or long sleeved shirt, and a baseball hat. Camp is open to both boys and girls. They should bring a bat, glove, and catching gear if they have it. For more information, please contact the Genesee Rebels manager/coach Matt DeMarais via email at geneseerebelsbaseball@gmail.com or call at 262-271-2053.

Who are the Genesee Rebels?

The Genesee Rebels are an amateur baseball team based in Genesee Depot. The Rebels play in the Land O' Lakes Baseball League and have players on their roster who excelled at the high school, collegiate, and post-collegiate levels. Rebels have players on their current and previous rosters who played for local high school teams Kettle-Moraine, The Saints, Mukwonago, and Waukesha West. Rebels are also alumni of collegiate programs at Carroll University, Saint Norbert College, UW-Whitewater, UW-Milwaukee, Oklahoma, and Trinity International University to name a few. The Rebels love the game of baseball and want to continue the tradition of local baseball for years to come.
